Competition rules:

The international Swim Meeting for the "Wappenschale" of Spittal will be swum according to the OSV (Austrian Swimming Federation) rules. Eligible for competition are all clubs whose national federation is a FINA member. The events will be swum in heats, those heats will be seeded according to the entry times. The heats will be seeded in no regards to the age groups (open class only). A proof of age must be presented by an appropriate travel document upon request.

Entries:

All Entries must be submitted either as a Lenex-File (to Martin Heger events@msecm.at) or online at www.msecm.at with the correct entry of personal best times. The SV FK Spittal reserves the right to refuse entries after the inspection of entry times, also if a maximal quota of entered swimmers is exceeded.

A swimmer is considered to be entered into the competition after the entering club has received an entry confirmation form from the organizer. Late entries will not be accepted.

With the submission of the entries, the responsible club confirms the sport health for all entered swimmers according to the FINA regulations. The last examination is less than one year old.

Entry deadline is January 11th (11:59pm).

Entry fees:

The entry fee is € 5,50 each individual start and € 8,00 each relay. The entry fee must be transferred to the account of SV FK Spittal after confirmation of entries or paid locally before the start of the competition.
